

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JANUARY 29, 2012

Fr. Dan's Musings: GREAT AMEN!!! The closing of the Eucharistic Prayer is another dialogue between the priest and you. The priest, who has recited most of the words of the Eucharistic Prayer, also proclaims the doxology. Then you reply. Just as you do not sing the doxology with the priest, so he should not sing the 'Great Amen' with you. He proclaims the glory and honor of God, and you answer 'Amen' to his words. You affirm all that has been said before. You make this a great 'Amen' because it concludes the greatest prayer of all. Once when asked to explain the meaning of 'Amen', a child thought for a minute, and compared it to e-mail: "It's hitting 'Send'." Indeed. We send our entire message all at once through the angelic Web server to in-box of the one who rules over all.
